OME RULE FOR IRELAND.

ENGLAND HAS LIVED A CENTURY IN THE LAST DECADE.

Rev. Dr. Talmage Predicts Ireland Will Have Home Rule and Be as Free as the United States-Transformation of Character. New York, April 2.—The Brooklyn taberna cle was crowded to night, when Rev. Dr. Tal-mage lectured on home rale for Ireland. He said: 'During the past week the world has had its eyes fixed on the parliament house of England amid the most intense excitemen ever witnessed in any legislative body on either side of the Atlantic. The prime mini-er of England has proposed that Ireland have two houses of parliament, and viceroy, while at the same time it shall forever be a part of The British empire. By the time that the minutes of Mr. Gladstone's policy of home rule a arranged it may be something very different from which is now proposed. But that it hould find such splendid advocacy and have sny recution as all is proof of progress beyond snything we anticipated and shows that England has lived a con-

A grand spring opening Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, and just as he ever does, A. Kaufman, at his double combination store, 1241-1243 Eleventh street southeast, takes the city again by street southeast, takes the city again by storm, offering such bargains in dry goods and varieties as would make other merchants pause and go mad. Bat A. Kaufman remains calm and cool, knowing perfectly well what he is about, and, while obliging everybody, not neglectful of his own interest. He possesses the secret of business management; nobody can get it from him, and consequently no success is like his.

A Pleasant Campfire.

The third anniversary of Charles Sumner Post No. 9, G. A. R., was held at Grand Army Hall, Sixth and C streets, last night. Commodore F. C. Revells welcomed the guests, and in a happy manner spoke of the success of the post since its organizathe success of the post since its organiza-tion. Addresses were delivered by Gen. S. S. Burdette, Hon. Lewis Handback, Jerome B. Burk, N. M. Brooks, and S. E. Faunco. Excellent music filled in the interval during the speeches. The "Happy Four Quar-tette" sang several selections. An old time campire blazed merrity in the center of the big hole until 10:30 o'clock, when the floor was cleared for dancing.

Is It Heally Consumption?

Many a case supposed to be radical lung disease is really one of liver complaint and indigestion, but, unless that diseased liver can be restored to heality action. It will so dog the lungs with corrupting matter as to bring on their speedy decay, and then indeed we have consumption, which is scrotula of the lungs in its worst form. Nothing can be more happily calculated to nip this danger in the bud than is Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." By druggists. Is It Really Consumption?

Frugality and the purchasing and settling on homes in the public domain and seeunulating wealth in real estate are of more value than political recognition, and if this s followed you will not be long in finding out that a substantial farmer or citizen has nore honor among his fellows than a dozen officeholders. The greed for public office has done more to retard our progress than any other one thing. Polities has a strange fascination for white and colored men. When the latter fails in grasping a coveted prize the cause of the failure is ascribed to prejudice against the color; if the former fails in political aspirations, or is ousted from office and banished into the utter darkness of private life, he simply says he has test his grip, and if he does not lose his reason as well and take to drink, he goes back to his old vocation a wiser, sadder, and generally a poorer man. The Flower Mission. There has been in operation for some years in this city a Flower Mission which now proposes to enlarge its borders. This mission has carried flowers to the different city hospitals and to the sick and poor in their own homes, thus cheering many a suffering soul with the feeling that some thing beyond the bare necessaries of life is provided, and distracting his weary thought thing beyond the bare necessaries of life is provided, and distracting his weary thought from the pains of sickness by that most universal, innocent, and satisfactory of all human pleasures, the admiration of the beautiful, as well as the benifetal awakening of gratitude for the delicate attention and the implied compliment. This work is in connection with St. John's Guild of the parish of the same name. The ladies carrying on the mission have put up a contribution box for their charity in the House wing of the capitol, presented to the mission by Mr. W. B. Moses; in St. John's Church, in Woodward & Lothrop's store, Pennsylvania avenue; in Burdett's store, Seventh street, and in other prominent places. The ladies of the mission have issued the following address to the clergy:

Will you give us Godspeed and invite your congregation to aid us in enlarging our flower mission, and unite in extending it throughout the city? We have the assistance, earnest sympathy, and co-operation of Miss Cleveland, Mrs. Sherman, Mrs. Ingails, Mrs. Hiscock, St. John's Church, and many others well known for their interest in the welfare of Washington. With the St. Doresthes chapter of flowers of St. John's Gluid as our comoration, we hope to establish a mission here which will prove general and permanent, and may give a glean of hope and comfort to the poor and helniess.

Our third distribution committee will meet at St. John's Church Thursday, April 15, at 10 o'cheex. The church will be open all day, and we hope all who can will send us a few flower in the course of the smallest build of promise will give us oncouragement. We also earnestly desire that volunteers from your Sunday shorts.

We hope soon to have another and more central place for receiving flowers, and if we can secure, as we have good resson to believe we shall, the good will and help of this generous places in the control of the poor of the prominent of the meeting of the meeting of the mission, st. John's Church.

The Latest Manauver to Braw Money

from Ladies' Pockets. The modern business man may be pared to an angler, whose main object in life is to prepare alluring balts for the pub-He, who, of course, are the fish. The latest and most attractively prepared bait is called "special sales," which, when genuing, don't burt the fish in the least, and yet is sdvantageous to the angler. A case in point is the special sale of parasols at the Palais Royal. "Unseasonable weather has been disastrous to the sale of such goods. heen disastrons to the safe of such goods. In order to create a demand a special sale is advertised, during which parasols are sold at reduced prices." "It is better to sell at a very small profit than not sell at all," said Mr. Lisner yesterday. Besides, people into this had weather can't last, and the "special sale" will attract shrewd and careful layers.

In the Senate yesterday Mr. Ingalls (by equest) lutroduced a bill to provide for the compliation of the laws relating to and In force in the District, and for the appointin force in the District, and for the appointment of a reporter for the supreme court of the District. It authorizes the court to appoint three persons learned in the law as commissioners to compile, arrange, and classify all statutes and parts of statutes in force in and relating to the District. The supreme court of the district is also authorized to appoint a reporter, who shall cause the opinions and decisions of the court to be printed and published once in each year, and oftener when required by the court.

each year, and oftener when required by the court.

The Senate District committee met yesterday, and agreed to report the bill to amend the charter of the Metropolitan Railroad Company so as to authorize the extension of the route from its present terminus at Four-and-a-half and O streets, along O street to Water, to M, to Four-and-a-half; and from the present terminus at Ninth and East Capitol street to Eleventh, and to Virginia avenue. The bill is reported with the amendments suggested by the District commissioners, directing that cars be run more frequently northward from Dupont Circle, and that the present method of compelling passengers to change cars in Georgetown be done away with; also, the privileges granted shall only become operative upon the removal of the track on Seventeenth street west, south of H street, which is regarded as an unsightly obstruction, and the restoration of that street took up the gas company investigation resolution, which looks to a reduction in the price of gas, and it was decided that they should annoth a subcommittee, or take in the price of gas, and it was decided that they should appoint a subcommittee, or take such other action as may seem fit to bring about a prompt and comprehensive inquiry.

There are more than 200 exclusively re-igious newspapers published in the United States and Canada, and the best authorities States and Canada, and the best authorities agree that the combined circulation of these is about 2,500,000. Experts in newspaper circulation consider that for each subscriber a weekly family journal may count four readers. If this be true, the religious press may claim an audience of about 10,000,000. We state as an ascertianed fact that not one of these journals has ever refused to advertise the famous Monizer Sec. Good people know good wine as well as the wild, wayward, and wicked.

Wills Filed Yesterday. The register yesterday received for pro-bate and record the will of the late Elizabeth Baucroft, wife of Hou. George Ban croft. In pursuance of the powers reserved croft. In pursuance of the powers reserved by the testatrix in an ante-nuptial agreement between her and Mr. Bancroft, made Aug, 15, 1838, she leaves $20,000 to Alexander Bliss and E. Francis Riggs in trust for the benefit of the husband of the deceased; at his death one haif is to be left with trustees for the benefit of William D. Bliss, son of the deceased, of Petaluma, Cal., and the other half given to him absolutely. To the same trustees $30,000 is given in trust for the benefit of the other son, Wm. D. Bliss. The residue of the estate is given to Alexander Bliss. ander Bliss.

Two other wills were also received by the register for probate and record, being those of theiry Ruth and Stephen it. Sherman, and in both the testators left their property to their widows.

When Not in Positive Agony, When Not in Positive Agony, the rheimatic are seldom free from a certain soreness or stiffness in the joints and muscles, which serves as a constant reminder that the virus only waits an unfavorable change of weather, or the aid of a cold, to emphasize its presence with exercitating twinges. To prevent the recurrence and mitigate the pain, there is no finer or safer source of relief than Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a medicine every way preferable to the poisons, repeated infinitesimal doses of which are taken, to the prejudice of leatht and the jeopardy of life, and without a permanently remedial effect. Sieep banished by rheumatic and neuralgic pain atnight is restored by ints beneficial than the stoper of the nervous system, and the slumber which it superinduces is far more refreshing and beneficial than the stoper into which the brain, is thrown by a narcoste. apticularity ii occceeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee "Chine, gentle sprine; THOMPSON'S SEASONS.

With the arrival of Springtime comes the desire to shed Winter clothes and follow the example set by budding Nature and appear in newand seasonable garb. The question for you to determine, then, is: Where can you be best suited, not alone in the material or style that your fancy calls for, but in that important factor that enters solargely into every man's arrangements, viz: THE PRICE.

We do not claim to have a monopoly of ALL the good things in the Clothing line. They who do, make a false claim, and "FALSUS IN UNO FALSUS IN OMNIBUS," but we have some of the neatest and most desirable styles for men and boys we have ever seen. Being cut on proper principles, our garments invariably conform to the shape of the average man, so there is but little trouble about obtaining a perfect fit, as, in addition to our "regular" sizes, we keep in stock a large assortment of what are known as "fat sizes," cut expressly for short and stout men, and "long sizes," cut for tall and slight men. We can fit any shaped man with ease.

Our prices are such as only a house doing a large business on a small expense account can enable us to name. We believe it to be a waste of space for us to say "10,000 suits at a certain price" or '5,000 spring overcoats at another." That's all "rot." We take it that you only want one at a time, and we have a large variety from which that one can be selected. We keep our sizes constantly filled up, as, by our arrangements with manufacturers we are enabled to duplicate our sizes daily, thereby keeping our stock bright and fresh.

For anything worth keeping in the clothing line for man, boy, or child, for labor, business, school, or dress, and at the lowest possible prices, visit
